5. DEFINITIONS

Life Annuity – An annuity payable for the life of a Participant.

Life Annuity-Period Certain – An annuity payable for the life of a Participant or until the end of a period specified by the Participant, whichever is later. After the Participant's death, any payments shall be paid to his or her Beneficiary. The specified period may be 5, 10, 15 or 20 years.

Joint and Survivor Annuity-Period Certain — An annuity payable for the life of a Participant with a survivor annuity payable to the Participant's Beneficiary equal to 50% or 100% (as elected by the Participant) of the amount of the annuity payable during the life of the Participant, which shall continue for the remaining lifetime of the survivor or until the end of a period specified by the Participant, whichever is later. If the survivor dies before the end of the specified period, any additional payments shall be paid to the next succeeding Beneficiary for the remainder of the specified period. The specified period may be 5, 10, 15 or 20 years.

Qualified Joint and Survivor Annuity — An annuity payable for the life of the Participant with a survivor annuity payable for the life of the Participant's spouse that is equal to 100% (or 50% if so elected by the Participant) of the amount of the annuity payable during the life of the Participant.

Joint and Survivor Annuity — An annuity payable for the life of a Participant with a survivor annuity payable for the life of the Participant's Beneficiary equal to 50% or 100% (as elected by the Participant) of the annuity payable during the life of the Participant.

Cash Refund Annuity – An annuity payable during the lifetime of a Participant, with a single-sum payment at his or her death, to his or her Beneficiary equal to the excess, if any, of the amount applied to provide the annuity over the sum of the annuity payments made during the Participant's lifetime.
